RETAIL FIRST THURSDAY-SUNDAY EACH MONTH (Occasional)

Buffalo's retail scene was ignited 25 years ago by the occasional sale concept: shops open just four days a month. During the off weeks, they curate unique finds, making each month's shopping experience feel fresh and new.

Harlow's House: Downtown Buffalo, where there is a mix of everything from fashion to furnishings to décor and more!

JTB Home Furniture + Décor: Offering reclaimed wood tables, buffets, bookshelves and more along with all the décor items to top off any look! They also offer by appointment shopping and interior design work to help make your house a home.

Petals & Pine: Downtown Buffalo - a great mix of everything you didn't know you needed or to give as a gift!

Second Hand Rose: The icon of the occasional sale concept – you can enjoy one of a kind reinvented vintage and antique pieces along with new and unique gifts. You never know what you're going to find, but it's guaranteed to be unique!

This and That: Next to Second Hand Rose – often sells items out of their alley for your yard, garden or cabin. Inside is well stocked with everything for your home that you can think of and even those you can't!

EVENTS YEAR-ROUND

Kites on Ice Festival – 2nd Saturday in February:

Come see the incredible displays of giant show kites of every shape, size and color! Winter games, food trucks and family fun. See Buffalo Lake come alive in the winter!

Buffalo Days – 2nd week in June:

The week-long community celebration hosts a variety of events for everyone to enjoy! Take in carnival rides with the kids, fireworks and grand parade, and be sure to meet our royalty! Come watch one of the best parades in the areas, boasting quality marching bands that march right through downtown! It's a showcase of the best of the city and something Buffalo takes pride in for over 75 years!

Buffalo Rodeo – Weekend after Father's Day:

Buffalo is home of Minnesota's oldest PRCA rodeo. See cowboys compete in saddle bronc riding, bull riding, and timed events plus mutton bustin' activities and so much more for a full weekend of western heritage and family fun! BuffaloRodeo.com

Art and Craft Festival – 3rd Saturday in August: For nearly 45 years, every August the streets of downtown Buffalo are filled with artisans as Buffalo hosts their annual Art and Craft Festival. You will find over 150 vendors showing their wares and sharing their talents. Enjoy a treat while you shop from various food trucks along the way!

Car Show – 1st Saturday after Labor Day: Are you a classic car buff? Wheels roll in from all over the state to our Classics by the Lake Car Show every September. There is no better view than seeing hundreds of beautiful vintage, classic, and tricked out cars and trucks on the shores of Buffalo Lake. There are food and beverages available to make it a full day of family fun.

Deck the Halls – 1st Saturday in December: Don't miss Santa arriving by firetruck! Take a horse drawn wagon ride and visit live reindeer. Enjoy treats for the kids with a variety of holiday characters.

See BuffaloChamber.org for exact dates.

COME ROAM WITH US!

Explore our one-of-a-kind Buffalo Roam.

Looking for a fun outdoor family activity? Do the Roam! Buffalo is home to 25+ bison statues located throughout the city. Take a photo with them and share it on the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce Facebook page! Be on the look out for baby buffalos too! You will find them inside several businesses! WHY NOT LEARN ABOUT THE AREA?

The Wright County Historical Society is a treasure trove of artifacts and information regarding Buffalo and Wright County's history. Located just north of town on Highway 25 it houses a beautiful 8,000 square foot museum and library where you can touch historic items, explore a historic log cabin or town hall, see exhibits like the Nelsonian one man band.

You can do genealogical research using their cutting edge online system. They are experts in Swedish, Norwegian, German and French-Canadian ancestry.

The best part is they are open year round Monday through Friday and admission is free!

Go to WrightHistory.org for further information!

WHY NOT STAY?

Make it a weekend by staying in style just minutes from downtown Buffalo or just a few miles away. Located on Highway 55, the recently renovated Country Inn & Suites by Radisson offers spacious rooms or suites equipped with free high-speed internet, a heated pool/whirlpool, and a large complimentary hot breakfast. Budget Host Inn also has a pool and is a great place to stay if traveling with a pet.

Maybe your stay calls for enjoying Buffalo but being a little closer to the Twin Cities. The GrandStay Delano is just 10 miles from Buffalo and only 30 miles west of Twin Cities Metro, on Highway 12. Best Western Plus Chelsea Hotel, Monticello is just off Interstate 94. Ten miles north of Buffalo.

Do you enjoy scrapbooking, quilting, knitting or any other sort of craft? Your Time Arts & Crafts Retreat is a home where crafters can gather and spend the weekend doing what they love. If being in the heart of the community is important, stay at one of 2 beautifully appointed AirBnB locations called Buffalo Getaways.
